We take safety very seriously so to ensure your child's safety, please read the terms and conditions and read to your child.

Facilities

There is equipment for use on site, in the unlikely event of breakages/damage to property any damages must be paid for.

Your child will be expected to wash and put away any equipment that you use.

Your child may be asked to bring a baking tray or dish depending on recipe.

Health and safety

A clean apron should be worn at all times.

A clean tea towel needs to be brought each week along with a suitable container to take cooking home in-a full kit is available on request.

Long hair needs to be tied back safely and no nail varnish should be worn. No mobile phones to be used in class.

If your child is unwell or will miss a class please inform Della as soon as possible.

Please list any allergies or medical problems below.

All information is strictly confidential.

Club Membership

Once joining the club your place will be held on an ongoing basis until notice of cancellation is received in writing (email and text included). All fees remain payable until the end of the notice period. The notice period is one full half term. [Therefore, notice needs to be given on or by the last day of half term/end of term, for the end of the following half term].

Other

Due to the environment (we treat the classroom as a kitchen environment) we expect good behaviour at all times, to be aware of other children in the class and behave in an appropriate manner, being aware of hot pans, knives etc. A child may be asked to leave if inappropriately behaved and no refunds will be given in this case.

A responsible adult must collect your child no later than 5.30pm unless otherwise arranged with the club

If your child is vegetarian please tick the box.

The cookery club holds no responsibility for damaged clothing.

For every 15minutes late picking up this will incur a £5.00 late fee.

You agree to a member of staff administering first Aid.

GDPR-Your details will only be used for the purpose of the cookery club and are never passed on-if you wish for your details to be deleted after your child has left the class please contact me
